  - (3) Best available technology for monitoring and reporting shall be explored and utilized on an ongoing basis. This would include "real time" reporting under which the results are sent automatically to a secured site for collection, review and retention. Improvements to monitoring or technology shall be incorporated into the conditional use permit and utilized in the operation of the nonmetallic mine site within 6 months.
  - (4) The ambient air monitoring plan shall address what types of failures could be expected or anticipated or theorized with the proposed equipment. A contingency plan for repairing or replacing the equipment shall be established. In the event that a failure occurs that was not anticipated or theorized, a contingency plan shall be developed and implemented within 48 hours of failure.
  - (5) The ambient air monitoring plan shall include specific techniques, strategy and methodology to be utilized on the proposed nonmetallic mine site in monitoring for particulate matter PM<sub>2.5</sub>. If PM<sub>2.5</sub> levels exceed 35 micrograms per cubic meter in any 24-hour period, the operator shall evaluate and implement additional best management practices to minimize PM 2.5 emissions. In the event the State of Wisconsin or the EPA adopts a stricter standard, the stricter standard shall take precedence under the permit.
  - (6) The ambient air monitoring plan shall state specific strategies that will be utilized on the nonmetallic mine site to monitor total suspended particulates (TSP). In the event TSP levels exceed 150 micrograms per cubic meter of TSP in any 24-hour period, the operator shall evaluate and implement additional best management practices to minimize TSP. In the event the State of Wisconsin or the EPA adopts a stricter standard, the stricter standard shall take precedence under the permit

The groundwater monitoring plan shall be developed by professionals with expertise in groundwater monitoring. Components of the plan, such as testing, data collection or analysis shall be completed by appropriate licensed professionals and laboratories. The groundwater monitoring plan shall include the following:
- (1) The installation of onsite monitoring wells in sufficient numbers and locations so that the depth to groundwater and the direction of flow can be properly observed.
  - (2) The potential draw-down area and the effects on existing and proposed municipal wells and private potable wells.
  - (3) A schedule for yearly testing for all potable wells that are located within the draw-down area or down gradient of the proposed nonmetallic mining operation. Baseline information shall include static water level, the existing levels of arsenic, nitrates and iron, bacteria, nitrites, VOC's, total suspended solids and chemicals or residuals of chemicals utilized onsite.

- (4) A water budget, which spans the life of the nonmetallic mine site. The water budget shall include alternatives such as the connection to a municipal water supply or the ability and process to reuse water in the daily operations.
- (e) Settling Ponds. Describe the purpose and functionality of the proposed settling pond. Describe any types of additives to be utilized in the settling pond, typical flow loads into and out of the pond, the protocol for maintenance of the pond, the proposed location for deposit of any material or water taken from the ponds and a contingency plan addressing protocol to be followed in the event the pond is compromised. Material Safety Data Sheets (MSDS) for any chemicals utilized directly in the settling pond or added to water that will be stored in the settling pond shall be submitted as part of the application.
- (f) Disposal of Hazardous Waste. Specific information pertaining to the disposal or placement of any material which contains hazardous substances and/or biological substances that would cause groundwater to be unpalatable or unfit for human consumption.

Sec. 70-184 Permits

- (a) Review. Provided the application meets the requirements of this division, a conditional use permit application shall be scheduled for a public hearing pursuant to Sec. 70-108, Conditional Use Permits. When reviewing the application, the Village shall consider, as a minimum, the following:
  - (1) The appropriateness of the proposed nonmetallic mine in relation to the existing nearby land uses.
  - (2) The effect of the proposed nonmetallic mine upon existing private and public water quality and quantity.
  - (3) The economic impact of the proposed nonmetallic mine on private enterprises and local government (e.g. road repair expenses).

  - (5) The location of, and effect upon, the proposed nonmetallic mine with respect to floodplains, floodways, drainage paths, and shorelands.
  - (6) Evidence demonstrating that no wetlands will be filled or negatively impacted as a result of the proposed nonmetallic mine.
- (b) Contingent on Other Required Permits. In addition to satisfactorily meeting the requirements of this division, approval of the application and ground of the conditional use permit shall be contingent upon the receipt of all other required permits for effluent discharge, storm water management, erosion control and highway road access.
- (c) Term and Renewal of Permit. Initial conditional use permits for nonmetallic mining shall be effective for 6 years from the date of village approval, unless a lesser time period is specified by the Village. A renewal of the conditional use permit shall be subject to the following:
  - (1) Applications for the renewal of a conditional use permit must be submitted at least 45 days prior to the expiration date of the existing conditional use permit. Any proposed changes from prior applications shall be required to submit the applicable required information under this division.
  - (2) The conditional use permit shall be renewed for an additional 6 years unless the operator regularly failed to comply with the requirements of the conditional use permit and this chapter. To ensure compliance, the Planning & Zoning Department shall bi-annually inspect the nonmetallic mining operation.

- (3) The conditional use permit shall not be terminated or denied without first providing the operator with a notice of a hearing and a hearing at which the operator shall be given the right to respond to the alleged default. Termination or non-renewal shall occur only in the event of an operator's failure to comply with any material term of the original permit, the operation and Reclamation Plan, the performance standards incorporated herein, or upon a significant change in material circumstances rendering continued operation under the conditional use permit to be contrary to the health, safety, or welfare of the Village.
  - (4) Conditional Use Permit renewals may be conditioned upon correction of any unanticipated environmental impacts, which occurred during the term of initial or renewal permits.
  - (5) Unless a public informational hearing is requested by a person who owns property within 660 feet of the proposed nonmetallic mining site, no public hearing shall be required to be held with the respect to a renewal application. However, if the application provides for an enlargement of the previously approved proposed nonmetallic mining site, or, otherwise provides for an alteration or change in the method of operations or reclamation previously approved, a new conditional use permit shall be required and approved only after finding such change will not adversely affect neighboring properties.
  - (6) The term for renewal permits shall be 6 years.
- (d) Transfer of Permit. In the event an operator succeeds the interest of another at an uncompleted nonmetallic mine site, the former operator shall be released of the responsibilities imposed by the current permit issued to the former operator upon satisfaction of the following conditions.
- (1) The nonmetallic mine site is in compliance with the requirements of this division and the permit for the operation of the nonmetallic mine site.
  - (2) The new operator assumes the responsibility of the former operator to complete the reclamation of the entire permitted nonmetallic mining site by a written, signed and notarized document and provides adequate financial assurance for approved reclamation of the nonmetallic mine site.

Sec. 70-185 Nonmetallic Mine Site Enlargement

Any proposed nonmetallic mining site enlargement shall be processed as a new application pursuant to this division. All provisions of this division shall apply to the proposed enlargement.

Sec. 70-186 Failure to Open and Operate

Failure of an operator to take substantial steps to open and operate a nonmetallic mining site within 1 year of the initial permit issuance shall invalidate the permit. A new permit application shall be required for any future nonmetallic mining activity.

Sec. 70-187 Abandonment of Nonmetallic Mine Operations

Any nonmetallic mine site on which no nonmetallic mining activity has taken place for 24 consecutive months shall be determined to be abandoned. If the abandonment of a nonmetallic mine site occurs, the conditional use permit shall be terminated and all applicable reclamation standards and bonds shall be enforced or executed. Nonmetallic mining operations shall not be conducted within the boundaries of the previously permitted nonmetallic mine site, unless a new nonmetallic mine permit has been issued under this division.
